in tribal language as their general policy and such policy has caused serious setback to the tribal education;

(b) whether it is also a fact that the 42nd report of the Commissioner for Linguistic Minority (CLM) presented to the Parliament, emphasised the need for urgent steps to fill up the huge vacancies of science teachers in Bodo medium schools of Assam and the State Government is unable to fill up those vacancies; and

(c) if so, whether appropriate steps would be taken by his Ministry to resolve the issues in consultation with the State Government?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRIMATI D. PURANDESWARI): (a) Education being a Concurrent subject, matters like medium of instructions in schools come under the jurisdiction of respective State Governments.

(b) and (c) The 42nd Report of Commissioner for Linguistic Minorities (CLM) has highlighted the shortage of science teachers in Bodo Medium schools in Assam. The filling up of vacancies in Bodo meduim schools in Assam comes entirely in the jurisdiction of the State Government. Ministry of Minority Affairs has, however, requested the Government of Assam to consider lifting of ban on recruitment of teachers and to appoint Shiksha Sahayaks.
